Soda Routes USA (SELLER) agrees to provide:

1. Training to buyer to service/operate their new vending route. Training to include but not be limited to:

-Bottler account/product acquisition.

-Equipment familiarity and general servicing of equipment.

-Ongoing servicing of route.

-A video of a vending professional, employed by Seller, explaining the process of filling and operating similar equipment to what Buyer will be using.

2. The allotted amount of locations listed in this agreement to place soft drink machines to be serviced by buyer. Each location to be accompanied by a detailed location agreement in the form of a fax, email or hard copy with acceptance from a representative of the business attached.

3. A full refund of any monies paid by Buyer if unable to secure locations to place said soft drink machines.

4. A full refund of any monies paid by Buyer if unable to secure equipment from one of Buyer's local bottling companies.

5. Discounted rates for Buyer to expand his route for any additional routes purchased in the future.

6. Access to the Soda Route USA network of one or more representatives, assigned specifically to Buyer, to assist in the initial setup and ongoing operations of Buyers route.

7. Replacement locations for accounts deemed by Seller to be underperforming, to be capped at 5 months from the signing of this agreement.

Buyer agrees:

1. The local bottling company supplying the equipment for their route will retain ownership of said equipment indefinitely.

2. Seller is to retain ownership of Buyers route until the final payment has been received.

3. To service their new route in a professional manner to avoid damaging the reputation, with the individual locations, of Seller due to poor or inadequate service provided by Buyer.

4. To pay $400 for each snack location provided by Seller if not purchasing equipment from Seller.
